

FUNERAL OF H. B. MITCHELL

The funeral of H. B. Mitchell, who died at one o'clock Saturday afternoon, was held at the family residence on West Washington street at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. E. B. Teis, pastor of the Presbyterian church. These last sad rites were unusually impressive, as all present were deeply affected by the untimely death of this man who was known by all as a most kind and considerate husband and father, a loyal friend, an exemplary citizen and one of the shrewdest, brainiest attorneys in the new country.

The Caddo County Bar Association attended the funeral in a body, as did the Order of Eagles, the deceased being a prominent member of these organizations. He was also a member of the Masonic order and the Knights of Pythias at Oklahoma City.

"Herb" Mitchell, as he was familiarly known to many of his friends and associates, leaves a wife and four children to mourn his absence from the home of which he was so fond, and a host of friends to whom his unflinching courtesy and consideration in the contact of everyday business life had greatly endeared him.

The Democrat extends to the heartbroken wife, the fatherless children and other sorrowing relatives, our heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour.

WHAT GUTHRIE SAYS ABOUT THE IRMA OPERA COMPANY

The Mgr. of the Anadarko Opera house received the following telegram "Mr. McAninch, Anadarko, Okla. Irma Opera company pleased so well here last week that we give them a return date, Sept. 17th J. M. Brooks. Mgr. Brooks Theater, Guthrie, Okla."

Rev. A. E. Butterfield, who was a pleasant caller at this office today, informs us that the members of the M. E. church South, at Verden, are moving their building, which was formerly located one half mile south of the city, to the four lots recently purchased by them in Verden. This will make a most desirable location and the members are to be congratulated upon the move. They are now permanently located and will greatly improve their property in the near future.

John Methvin, who has been in Arizona during the past six months in the hope of benefiting his health, returned to Anadarko this morning. His many friends in the city are pleased to welcome him home, and hope the change has proved very beneficial.

Mrs. A. Flannagan is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Peters, near Verden, this week, and forming the acquaintance of a new grandson, who arrived on Monday night of last week.

C. A. Mundell, who returned Saturday evening from a two months' absence in Geary, left on the morning train on a ten days' business trip.

John Kingsbury, who has been visiting his uncle, M. E. Monsell, and family, left today for his home in Antigo, Wis.

Mrs. Nellie M. Beebe, of Verden, spent a few hours in the city this morning, attending to business matters.

Mrs. Flora Parker and daughter returned yesterday from Lawton, where they have been attending the fair.

Henry Methvin left on the morning train for Norman, where he will enroll as a student in the university.

H. H. Stipp, a prominent young attorney of Des Moines, Iowa, is in the city on a business trip.

Mrs. S. E. Bergdorf left this morning on a ten days' visit with relatives at Shawnee.

SUNDAY IN THE COUNTRY

A merry party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Byette and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. White and family, and Rev. Turner and sons, spent yesterday afternoon at the hospitable Cheyenne home three and one half miles south of the city. All who participated in this pleasant outing report a most enjoyable day. Watermelons and peanuts were plentiful and it is unnecessary to state that each person present improved to the fullest extent the opportunity thus afforded to enjoy these popular edibles. We have been reliably informed that 40 watermelons and 1 1/2 bushels of peanuts were consumed by the party from the city, but as this paper has a reputation for truth and veracity to sustain, we will not vouch for the accuracy of this estimate.

Wash Gardner has joined the Democrat force.

Geo. Powell was up from Hillsboro on business today.

Wm. Dawson, of Hillsboro, spent the day in the city.

Matt Cook, of Hillsboro, transacted business in Anadarko today.

J. Y. Callahan, of Apache, was a business visitor in the county seat today.

The Wheatley residence on West Broadway, has been sold to L. B. Summers, of Chickasha, consideration $800.
